KPUD Represented at Annual White Salmon Spring Festival

Three-day event draws crowds to KPUD booth for information, free light bulbs

This year's Spring Festival in White Salmon June 1-3 had record attendance and drew a large crowd from the Gorge area. Klickitat PUD was well represented as Sharon Ohnstad, Wanita Gordon and Bill Rogers made sure the booth was set up and staffed throughout the weekend.

Bernie Predeek and Justen Greenwood drove the bucket truck in the annual parade Saturday, while their family members threw candy and took aim at the crowd from the bucket.

Sharon, an energy services specialist, was at the booth to answer questions about conservation and rebates.

"The majority of customers were interested in net metering and all the wind projects in Klickitat County," she says.

Compact fluorescent light bulbs, always a popular request, were also given to KPUD customers.

Special thanks go to all of the employees who helped make KPUD a part of the community weekend in White Salmon. ■
