

PPC welcomes discussion going forward that advances collaborative solutions and shares costs on the basis of the broad regional benefits provided. Not only is it appropriate to equitably align cost responsibility with public benefits but doing so also recognizes the region's shared stake in both fish recovery and the financial health of BPA.